

About us:

Welcome to Assets Institute. Whether you are looking for new properties, developer sales or up-to-the-minute listings for both commercial and residential sectors from The U.S. to across the globe, Assets Institute provides users access to best information on the market.

Mission

Our mission is to provide you with the most comprehensive and detailed information from our growing database to help you carefully select properties and monitor the newest launches from around the world.

We allows users to search for varying types of properties, both residential and commercial, and to provide valuable information for your decision making process. We are dedicated to constantly finding new and better ways to improve our navigation and search capabilities, ensuring that your experience with Assets Institute is unique and highly informative, evolving to our users specific needs.

We work with major developers to present one of the largest portfolios of properties available to consumers. Our aim is to be your most valuable asset when considering or selecting property locations, satisfying the need for comprehensive information during field research and acquisitions within the market.

We will continue to add new features which will deliver relevant local real estate information with the least amount of effort. Some of our best ideas come from YOU! – We appreciate user feedback about our site and strive to be the single-most informative destination for property available to the public.

Our vision

To facilitate all property buyers in The U.S. and enable them to make informed property buying decisions while keeping the experience enjoyable from start to finish. We seek to provide you with the most accurate information regarding new properties and strive to be a destination for all major buyers, both commercial and residential.

We work very closely with developers to understand property buyers needs and continue to expand our database, as well as our knowledge of the most pertinent information to consumers, so that you can be guaranteed to have access to only the best property launch information available on the internet.

Our Services:

At AssetsInstitute.com, our goal is complete commitment to each and every prospective property owner with only the most quality philosophy in mind: "To serve your best interests." We understand that buying property may in fact be the biggest investment of your life, so we strive to provide you with the highest quality and most detailed information, leading you in the right direction throughout your decision-making process.

Aside from being one of the most comprehensive and dedicated websites on the market, Assets

Institute grants you access to professionally licensed salespersons who are able to assist you with any questions you may have, providing property financing advice, detailed reports and market analysis. We will be there for you throughout the buying process, catering to each individual need along the way, ensuring that every buyer understands what they are purchasing and what benefits they are able to achieve by doing so.

With several new properties coming out every year, buyers have a hard time understanding each individual property and locating exactly what they need and what can be left out. Our goal is to provide you, the consumer, with firsthand, detailed information from every new launch. Just like our tag line says, "New from Developers," and that's exactly what we provide directly to you. We ensure that you will be able to acquire the proper information for every decision-making process you will encounter, even before the properties become for sale, keeping you ahead of the game.

Our qualified and licensed real estate brokers have years of experience in the U.S. property market. With a thorough understanding of requirement guidelines, our team will discuss in detail our specially designed "7 Steps of Sales" process, ensuring you acquire the proper information and knowledge throughout your property hunting process. We make finding the right property as fun as possible while keeping you educated and informed, sticking to our philosophy of "Always serving you to your BEST INTEREST."

No one else in the industry will give you direct access to this much information in such a timely manner. By choosing Assets Institute, you are ensuring that you get up to date- property facts before your competitor even has the opportunity to know what's on the market. If you would like more information, feel free to contact us to arrange a non-obligatory meeting with one of our friendly salespersons.

Premiere Investors Club:

Assets Institute "Residence for Retirees" Charity Campaign :

"Housing hopes, Providing dreams"

Mission:

Here at Assets Institute, we aim to give back to consumers with a different approach to a charitable experience. We believe in making the world a better place, so we've designed the charity campaign "Homes For Hopes" to give hope back to the community through housing. We are committed to doing our part for charity while we strive to give you the best information about your own dream home. You will be guided through the process by one of our professional salespersons. With a proven and effective dream home search process to aid in helping you to make the right decision, we promise to provide you with our utmost dedication, ensuring your complete satisfaction from purchase to the future beyond. Read more about our services here.

Assets Institute has teamed up with under-privilege charitable organizations and will continue to support them by whatever means necessary. Our current charitable list is smaller than we would like to see, as this is a new campaign, but we hope that by starting small we will be able to grow larger and make a major impact in our community and the world! See our list of charity organizations below.

When you purchase a property through us, 10% of the net proceeds received from developers will be donated under your name to any one of the charitable organizations of your choice from our list. While we form a partnership together to create a successful real estate portfolio, let's help those in need with our success by changing the lives of others for the future of our community. We strive to increase your property wealth while at the same time increasing your involvement in charity and the wealth of future generations.

Be a proud owner! Be a proud donor!

Vision:

Our vision aims to create a giving culture within the real estate industry. We hope to inspire and influence our peers and colleagues to participate in what we are doing by striving to achieve the same mindset towards a harmonious and caring society. We have only one direction and it is to change the perspective in the real estate industry and expand our charity network throughout the globe. Support us to make this a reality! We welcome any feedback to improve our website so feel free to send your comments to housingvirtues@AssetsInstitute.com.
